DETAILED ACTION

Continued Examination Under 37 CFR 1.114

1. A request for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, including the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e), was filed in this application after final rejection. Since this application is eligible for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, and the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e) has been timely paid, the finality of the previous Office action has been withdrawn pursuant to 37 CFR 1.114. Applicant's submission filed on 08/16/07 has been entered. The art rejection made in paragraph 6 of the previous office action is withdrawn. The double patenting rejection is maintained and explained below.

2. The Examiner has carefully considered Applicant's amendments and accompanying remarks dated 08/16/07. The pending claims at this time are Claims 1, 2, 4, 5, 6 and 8. Applicant's amendments to the claims have been entered, however the Examiner does not believe that Applicant has proper support for the amendment of a "single use" wipe. Applicant refers to the page 1, lines 24-29 and page 2, lines 24-26 for support of this limitation. It is the position of the Examiner that the reference to page 1 is what is known in the prior art and current state of the art and does not define Applicant's invention. The reference to page 2, does not resolve this issue any further either. Therefore, this limitation is considered new matter and is rejected below.

3. With regard to the double patenting rejection, it is also maintained, as the claims of 10/762945 have been currently amended to a single use nonwoven wipe comprising a similar coating. If either of these applications are deemed allowable, then the double patenting rejection will be withdrawn for the first to be allowed, however until then they shall be maintained.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

4. The following is a quotation of the first paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall contain a written description of the invention, and of the manner and process of making and using it, in such full, clear, concise, and exact terms as to enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and use the same and shall set forth the best mode contemplated by the inventor of carrying out his invention.

5. Claims 1, 2, 4, 5, 6 and 8 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as failing to comply with the written description requirement. The claim(s) contains subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to reasonably convey to one skilled in the relevant art that the inventor(s), at the time the application was filed, had possession of the claimed invention. Applicant's amendments to the claims have been entered, however the Examiner does not believe that Applicant has proper support for the amendment of a "single use" wipe. Applicant refers to the page 1, lines 24-29 and page 2, lines 24-26 for support of this limitation. It is the position of the Examiner that the reference to page 1 is what is known in the prior art and current state of the art and does not define Applicant's invention. The reference to page 2, does not resolve this issue any further either. Therefore, this limitation is considered new matter and is rejected.

6. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

7. Claims 1, 2, 4, 5, 6 and 8 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention. As Applicant has amended the claims in an attempt to overcome the art of Radwanski et al (USPN 6734157) and they believe that the cited reference teaches multiple uses of the wipe, the Examiner questions that how is Applicant's wipe any different? Structurally they appear to be the same. Applicant's claims do not recite any special abrasion resistance or what makes their composite any different than that shown in USPN 6734157. How does a skilled artisan quantify this? Please clarify.
